For Your Eyes Only

Type: _____X____ Introductory _____ Working _____ Closing _____ Game

Low Risk – Getting to know each other	Growing Risk – Personal awareness	Ending – Saying goodbye	Active Exercise – For group building and fun

Optimum Group Size: Any

Materials Needed: None

Outline of Activity:

One person tells a story of their childhood (favorite memory/favorite birthday, etc.) RESTRICTION- You can't talk! You may use gestures. Stories must be lip read. When the story is complete, have the rest of the group members retell the story the way that they heard it. Check the accuracy with the storyteller when the group is finished.

Processing:

What were some non-verbal messages?
What emotions were being portrayed?
How were these interpreted?
How do we make impressions on visual data alone?

Goal:

Get acquainted with the group.

Source or Submitted by: More Games Trainers Play, Edward E. Scannell, 1983